ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 2, 1905.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

DON'T BE HYPNOTISED.

Hoodwinked, hoodooed, or over-persuaded into accepting a substitute for Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with its record of nearly 40 years embracing hundreds of thousands of cures of woman's peculiar ailments. It's the only remedy for woman's ills sold by druggists, that is not full of "booster" poor whiskeys, or bad alcohols.

A guarantee of $1000 is offered that "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, opium or other harmful drug. Keeps in any climate.

"Favorite Prescription" is a powerful invigorating tonic, and imparts strength to the whole system and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, worn-out, "run-down" debilitated, nervous, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to attempt to palm off upon you an alcoholic substitute for this world-famed medicine. You know what you want. It's his business to meet that want. When he urges some substitute he's thinking of the larger profit he'll make—not of your welfare.

PRINCE LOUIS AT ANNAPOLIS.

Prince Louis, on the flagship Drake, accompanied by five other cruisers, arrived off Annapolis shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday morning and exchanged salutes with the American fleet, first firing the national and then the admiral's salute.

When the booming of the guns announced the arrival of the British ships, Lieutenant Commander T. P. Magruder, representing Admiral Sands, and Col. Edmund L. Woodside, representing Governor Warfield, went out in a launch to greet his serene highness and to arrange for the exchange of visits.

Prince Louis was prompt to respond, and shortly before noon his launch pulled into the boathouse wharf at the Academy grounds. He was accompanied by his naval aides, Lieut. Gerald Sowerby, Lieut. Walter R. Croley and Captain Ryon, British naval attaché at Washington.

There were received by Admiral Sands. As the Prince stepped ashore a file of marines presented arms and the Academy band gave him two flourishes and struck up a couple of bars of music, to which his rank entitles him. After exchanging formal salutes the Prince and Admiral Sands shook hands warmly, and introductions all around followed. They then entered a carriage and were driven to the Admiral's house, where a formal reception, lasting about 15 minutes, was held.

From there they were driven to the executive mansion, where they were received by Governor Warfield, who was assisted by Secretary of State Oswald Tiggan, Adjutant General Clinton L. Riggs and Col. Edmund L. Woodside, of his staff, and Capt. William Biard, United States army.

The reception took place in the Governor's office and was not altogether formal. After introductions, the Prince asked for Mrs. Warfield, and expressed regret that neither she nor the Misses Warfield were present. Governor Warfield laughingly said that the only female member of the family in the city was his six-year-old daughter, Miss Emma Warfield, and the Prince expressed a desire to see her.

She was called, and as the curly-haired little girl tripped into the room, her eyes wide open and not the least abashed by the presence of so many distinguished men, the genial face of the British Admiral lighted, and he greeted her with a smile, saying that he had seen at home who was just her age and who might make a good beau for her.

The Prince impressed everyone with his democratic spirit, and he was particularly pleased with the Executive Mansion, remarking several times that it was beautiful, and incidentally told the Governor that his State provided well for him.

After a few minutes' conversation the Prince and others of the party were invited into the state dining-room, where some of the famous "Admiral Buchanan" punch was served. The cordial manner in which the Prince was received made him feel entirely at home, and he laughed and talked as joyously as a schoolboy.

As he was about to leave the Governor told him that a number of photographers were waiting outside to take his picture, and asked whether he would object. He replied that he was in America to do as Americans did, and he posed, not once, but several times, that all might have a chance.

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Admiral Sands and Gov. Warfield returned the visit, the former being accompanied by his aide, Lieutenant Commander Magruder; the Governor by his staff and Mayor Frank A. Monroe, of Annapolis. Mayor Frank A. Monroe extended to the Prince the freedom of the city.

Colonel Woodside had a special commission. While at luncheon little Miss Warfield, admiring some beautiful chrysanthemums that were on the table, said she would like to send one to the Prince. Colonel Woodside gallantly offered to carry it, so when the launch pulled out from the wharf a great yellow bloom was seen sticking in his belt.

The chrysanthemum that was sent by little Miss Warfield was received by the Prince with expressions of much pleasure and he said that before he left he would be pleased to see her again.

Governor Warfield and his party reached the Drake just as Admiral Sands was leaving. As the governor came up the gangway he was received by a file of marines and a salute of 17 guns. He was met by the Prince and taken to the ship's cabin, where they remained about 15 minutes.

Herb W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Hick's Forecasts.

Rev. Irl Hicks has made the following predictions for the month of November: The last storm period of October will not have wholly subsided until the 1st and 2d of November. After two or four days of cool, fair and frosty weather, about the 5th change to cloudy and warmer and autumnal rains, probably ending in snow and will pass eastwardly over the country during the 6th, 7th and 8th.

The second storm period is central on the 11th and 12th and the results will be southerly winds, growing cloudiness and more autumnal rains. Watch for threatening conditions; also for the change to colder and clearing, freezing weather at night sure to follow.

The third storm period is central on the 17th. About the time of this period it will be wise to expect some storm and gales. A November cold wave will follow this period.

The fourth storm period is central on the 22d and 23d. On and about the 22d and 23d general storms will be in progress from west to east, with very stormy weather for the balance of the month. It may be set down as almost an absolute certainty that wide and violent disturbances will appear during the last two periods.

The fourth storm period will begin as early as the 25th to 26th. The mercury period is central on the 26th, the date of the new moon perigee. A marked change to the warmer will be advancing from the west by the 26th. General autumnal rains will quickly follow. Rains will turn to snow and sleet, and almost a general November blizzard will come with the high barometer, sure to press close behind the last stages of the storms.

Twenty Persons Killed.

Twenty persons were killed and upward of a hundred wounded in the encounters in Warsaw last night between the mobs and the troops. At 10 o'clock a crowd gathered before the town hall and demanded the release of political prisoners. The chief of police liberated 300 who had been arrested during the last few days, but refused to release 12 who were arrested by order of the central government. The crowd then commenced to smash the doors and windows of the town hall, whereupon the chief of police telephoned the barracks for assistance and a force of hussars and Cossacks with a battery of artillery galloped to the scene. The hussars charged the mob, killing 16 persons and wounding 73. Later there was an encounter between infantry and a mob in the bank square, when the troops fired into the crowd, killing 4 and wounding 30. There is a complete deadlock in business and traffic. Even the employees of the drug stores have again gone out on strike.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph E. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

But Few Are Free.

But few people are entirely free from indigestion at this season of the year. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is not only the best remedy to use because it digests what you eat but because it also enables the digestive apparatus to assimilate and transform all foods into tissue-building blood. Kodol relieves sour stomach, heart burn, belching, and all forms of indigestion. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King Street.
